

17.3.20 – Update

Visitors to Verulam House

We are now asking those family and friends who are 70 and above to refrain from visiting

This category is now self-isolating

Our request in asking family members, friends and any visitors to restrict their visits to 1 family member per Resident until further notice still applies.

We will update further as and when updates are received